Why MEGA Sports Camp?

Has your VBS stopped being an outreach?

“As I was looking around at the kids who were at our VBS last year, I realized we had stopped being an outreach and were just a really expensive discipleship event. When we switched to MEGA Sports Camp outreach, not only did we take VBS hoppers out of the mix, we had over 100 kids with no church connection come to our sports camp. We were able to show the people in our area that the church is not about buildings, names, or numbers but about people that love Jesus, working together to spread the light of the gospel.”

—Shannan Volters, Cleves, Ohio

MEGA Sports Camp

Where Do I Start?

1. Choose your sports

Think about athletic people in your church or community. Offer sports these people would like to lead. It's a great chance to get new people involved, like college students and parents. You'll need a gym, grassy area, or parking lot. If you have none of those, opt to use facilities at a park or school.

See p. 13 for sports playbooks.

3. Recruit and train your team

The Director Guide gives job descriptions for every volunteer. Coaches focus on just one part—sports, music, Bible lessons, small groups, or snacks. Segments on the Director DVD make training a snap.

2. Choose your schedule

Almost every format you can dream up, MEGA Sports Camp curriculum can fit. If the 5-day, 3-hour schedule shown below doesn't work for you, spread it out for 10 weeknights or Saturdays.

See MEGASportsCamp.com for schedule options.
