The Likeable Christian

A Journey Toward the Radical Love Jesus Taught Us to Live

Justin Lathrop

It's time for a rethink. For those of us seeking to live a life that is pleasing to God, it's tempting to get caught up in the specifics—how to vote, which church to attend, how to do Communion. While none of these concerns are unimportant, they're not nearly as important as the greatest command we have ever been given: Love God and love one another. That's likeability.

Likeability isn't easy, but in The Likeable Christian Justin Lathrop discusses ways to glorify God in our everyday lives by living more like Christ, actually doing what He did, and loving people the way He loved them. When we live like that, we can be free, because the rest is up to Him.

Audience:

Millennials and adults of any age.

AUTHOR

Rob Ketterling is the founder and lead pastor of River Valley Church, a multisite church started in Minnesota in 1995. It has since grown into a thriving church with over 5,000 in attendance across five U.S. campuses and one international campus in Valencia, Spain. Rob serves on several church and para-church boards, the Board of Regents at North Central University, and is on the lead team of the Association of Related Churches (ARC).

AUTHOR

Justin Lathrop has spent several years starting businesses and ministries that partner with pastors and churches to advance God's kingdom. He is the founder of Helpstaff.me (now part of Vanderbloemen Search Group), Oaks School of Leadership, and YoungPastors.com. Justin serves in the area of strategic relations for organizations like the Assemblies of God, Leadership Network, and Convoy of Hope.

The Bush Always Burns

Jesus in the Unannounced Moments of Life

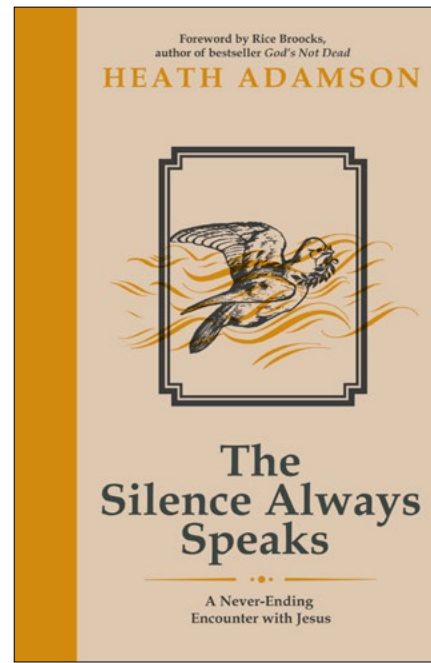

Heath Adamson

The Bush Always Burns introduces a Jesus all of us can seek, find, and trust in moments that are bright and moments that are dark. Heath Adamson takes us back in time to meet an undesirable character from his youth: him at age seventeen. Adamson grew up knowing a little bit about the occult, too much about drugs, and almost nothing about God.

If you find yourself struggling to know your heavenly Father the way Heath did, The Bush Always Burns offers a life-giving reminder that Jesus is (and always has been) waiting for us to turn and see that the bush always burns and the ground is always sacred.

Audience:

Millennials and adults of any age.

The Silence Always Speaks

A Never-Ending Encounter with Jesus

Heath Adamson

When Jesus left the earth, He made a promise of power and privilege to His witnesses. His voice still reverberates in the silence—the silence of circumstance, of uncertainty, of question, and perceived absence. Heath Adamson helps us answer tough questions such as:

- How do we know truth in a world of relativism?
- How can we find peace when we're surrounded by uncertainty?

How Jesus Changes Everything

George O. Wood

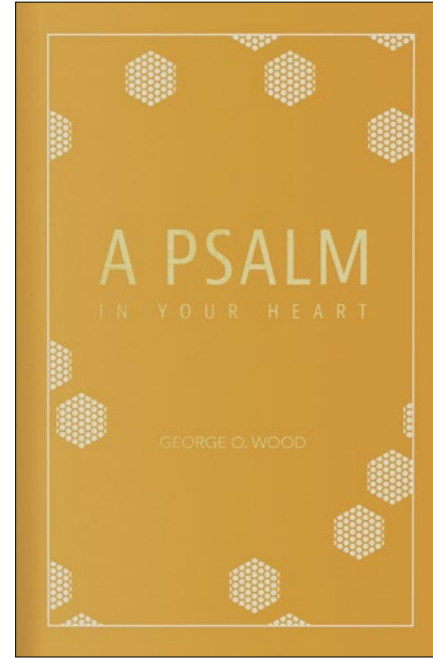

A caring pastor and author meets with you daily in this collection of 261 inspiring devotions. George O. Wood examines the Book of Mark while providing a Scripture passage and prayer for each day.

Wood is an engaging storyteller who shares an upbeat mini-story or vignette every day. For example, one day's reading introduces the first grocery store owner to offer grocery carts for customers. It took time for people to accept this helpful new idea, since they had always carried everything themselves. Wood explains that our Savior does something similar for us.

We tend to carry more burdens than necessary, so the Lord reaches out and says, "Let Me do it for you."

Audience:

Adults seeking devotions with a Scripture focus along with contemporary commentary.

A Psalm in Your Heart

Library Edition

George O. Wood

Ideal for personal reading, weekly staff devotions, or a small group study, this book will open up the Psalms in a new way.

Author George O. Wood illuminates how our sorrows today arise from three sources constantly identified in the Psalms: hurts others have done to us, hurts we have done to ourselves, and the hurt because God—who could have spared us—let it happen. Exploring the psalms through this lens allows us to gain perspective on our own most personal needs. The studies help us invite God's truth to provide stability, balance, and hope to our hearts.

Gold-stamped edition includes ribbon marker, Scripture columns, prayer response, and space for recording personal notes.

Audience:

Adults seeking devotions with a Scripture focus along with contemporary commentary.

AUTHOR

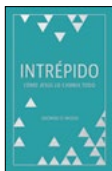

George O. Wood is general superintendent of The General Council of the Assemblies of God and chairman of the World Assemblies of God Fellowship. A former pastor, he holds a doctoral degree in pastoral theology from Fuller Theological Seminary and a juris doctorate from Western State University College of Law. He and his wife, Jewel, live in Springfield, Missouri.

The Word and the Spirit

Discover How the Power of Scripture and the Holy Spirit Work Together in Your Life

David Hertweck

Imagine this. One day you hear the Holy Spirit is a living Person. You wonder, "Is this legit?" David Hertweck has the answer. As a knowledgeable Christian minister who works with youth and youth leaders on a daily basis, he could supply a quick response. Instead, Hertweck compels young men and women to dive into the Bible. Interactive questions interspersed throughout the book entice readers to keep going while also helping them feel the thrill of personal discovery. As a special bonus, this book also shares insights from other youth. They too encountered faith questions and now know the Holy Spirit in an invigorating, personal, life-changing way.

Audience: Youth and young adults who are curious about the Holy Spirit.

Why Some Churches Are Blessed

Putting Faith and Obedience into Action

Dan Betzer

How do you grow a church? In Why Some Churches Are Blessed, you'll learn the one biblical principle author Dan Betzer says is the secret: Give and it will be given to you.

Dan first learned that God blesses a giving church while pastoring a church with just ninety members. With God's direction, he encouraged the people to set a mission giving goal for the year that was totally beyond their reach. God honored their faith and they raised double the church budget! As a result, the gospel spread and the church grew.

Through generously supporting missions, phenomenal growth occurred in Betzer's church, and it can happen in yours too.

Audience: Pastors and church leaders who want to learn how to develop remarkable missions programs.

AUTHOR

David Hertweck is a youth ministry worker who is passionate about helping church youth workers create and sustain disciple-making environments marked by gospel fluency, Spirit dependency, and biblical community. He and his wife, Erin, have three daughters. They currently reside in Syracuse, New York.

AUTHOR

Dan Betzer is the author of more than twenty books and serves as senior pastor at First Assembly of God in Fort Myers, Florida. Betzer has shared his remarkable blend of humor and Bible teaching with audiences of adults and youth via six hundred TV and radio stations in the US and worldwide.
